

COURAGEOUS LITERACY

ARE YOU A CONTEXT CLUE DETECTIVE (3RD-5TH GRADE)

YOUR MISSION: USE THE CLUES IN THE SENTENCE TO FIGURE OUT THE DEFINITION OF THE SECRET SILLY WORD.

The weather outside was glorp! we had to wear our heavy raincoat.

My Detective Evidence (The clues in the sentence):

What I think "glorp" means:

After running three laps around the school track in the hot afternoon sun, Maya felt so bizzle that she drank two whole bottles of water.

My detective evidence (the clues in the sentence):

What I think "bizzle" means:

COURAGEOUS LITERACY COMMUNITY EVENT

Beat the "summer slide" and build your child's academic confidence. Come to our weekly Summer Literacy Lab! We focus on reading games, comprehension strategies, and writing confidence for upper elementary students.

- WHAT: Free Summer Literacy Lab (Drop-ins welcome!)
- WHEN: Tuesdays & Thursdays in July | 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM
- WHO: Upcoming 3rd, 4th, and 5th-grade students
- WHERE: [Holy Light Miracle Temple], 3998 Dorchester Road, North Charleston 29405

COST: 100% FREE Community Resource

Hosted by: Courageous Literacy

Have questions? Contact us at: salondragriggs@gmail.com or visit
courageousliteracy.net